

ART WALK

➤ The Frame Shop

Artist, Ryan Wright, has embarked on a creative journey to paint 100 fish, inspired by his fascination with the fluid nature, power, and beauty of water. Now a little over halfway through this project, he invites you to join him in exploring the mysteries that lie beneath the surface.

➤ Kodiak Arts Council

Join us for our 12th Annual Artist Trading Card Show "Light & Dark" opening reception in the Gerald C. Wilson Auditorium Foyer featuring art from community members and local artists.

➤ Kodiak Refuge Visitor Center

Join us to Build-A-Kodiak-Brown-Bear at the Kodiak National Wildlife Refuge Visitor Center. Spruce cones and clay will be used to create a nature-inspired Kodiak Brown Bear. All supplies will be provided. All ages welcome.

➤ Double Shovel Cider Kodiak

David Cox Photography will showcase his wildlife and nature shots.

➤ Galley Tables

NOVEMBER 1 | 5 TO 7 PM

➤ Harborside Fly-By

Local artist Heather Johnson will have an array of mixed media and three dimensional art. There will be whales, kingfishers, chickadees and more! You won't see her work at any bazaars, exclusively displayed at Fly-By.

➤ Kodiak History Museum

Exhibit opening, A Sense of Place, featuring a collection of artwork by Bonnie Dillard inspired by Eva Holm's set net site. Free and open to the public

➤ Kodiak Island Brewing & Still

The Kodiak Bear Paw Quilters will be having a pop up sale of the 2025 Kodiak Men In Quilts Calendars.

➤ Alutiiq Museum

On display only for the art walk a recently repatriated Alutiiq mask collected during the height of the Russian fur trade
